Bengal CM to hit campaign trail from Monday

She will start her campaign from Cooch Behar in North Bengal with a public rally

AGENCIES
KOLKATA, 24 JUNE

Chief minister Mamata Banerjee will kick-start her full-scale campaign for the 8 July panchayat elections in the state from Monday.

As per the schedule, the chief minister will start her campaign programme from Cooch Behar district in North Bengal with a public rally.

Party sources said that she will be reaching Cooch Behar on Sunday night.

A senior party leader said that after Cooch Behar, the chief minister is also likely to address a similar rally at Alipurdia district, the details of which are yet to be finalised.

"Recently, a meeting of the party's top leadership was conducted at the chief ministers' residence to finalise the campaign strategy for the rural civic body polls. There the chief minister clearly directed all the top leaders to take the polls with equal seriousness like Lok Sabha and Assembly polls and hence take part in the campaign process with equal seriousness.

"So, going by the proverb 'practice what you preach' the chief minister is herself participating in the campaign process this time," said a senior party leader, who did not wish to be named.

According to political observers, the chief minister's campaign kick-off from North Bengal is an indication of the importance that the ruling party leadership is stressing on the region considering that in 2019 Lok Sabha polls not a single constituency in the region came to the kitty of Trinamul Congress.

In fact, the party national general secretary and Lok Sabha member Abhishek Banerjee too started his recently concluded mass-outreach programme from Cooch Behar district only. Even in the 2021 West Bengal polls, BJP's performance from the constituencies in North Bengal was extraordinarily better than the other pockets in the state.

In fact, a section of the senior Trinamul Congress leadership has also admitted in private that the results of the panchayat elections in the rural civic body polls will be an indication of how the trend will be in the big battle of the 2024 Lok Sabha polls.

Stir by state employees demanding central forces' cover in all booths

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
KOLKATA, 24 JUNE

Polling personnel, mostly state government employees, who have been assigned polling duty, staged demonstrations on Saturday demanding deployment of central forces at every booth during the panchayat election, scheduled on 8 July.

The demonstrations took place in front of Allia University at Park Circus, where they had gathered for election duty training programme.

The agitating workers demanded adequate security coverage under central forces for their safety, from the day of joining election duty and the day of counting, likely to be held on 10-11 July. They also demanded security till they return home after the counting is over.

The ministry of home affairs on Thursday night sent 315 companies of central forces and state armed police (SAP) force to Bengal for rural body polls after the West Bengal State Election Commission (WBSEC) requisitioned on Thursday for 822 companies.

With deployment of the 315 companies of central forces, the state got 335 companies in all since Tuesday.

Earlier, with the request of the state poll panel, the home ministry had sent 22 companies of paramilitary forces.

Central forces comprises Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF), Border Security Force (BSF), Central Industrial Security Force (CISF), Railway Protection Force (RPF), Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP) personnel and State Armed Police (SAPs) personnel are from states like Assam, Bihar, Odisha, Jharkhand, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Tripura, Mizoram, Sikkim, Arunachal Pradesh, Meghalaya and Maharashtra, have already started area dominations in different districts as confidence building measures among voters particularly at the backdrop of 10 people being killed in poll-related political clash violence.

On Saturday, the central forces started a route march in violence-ravaged Bhangar in South 24 Parganas.
