Ex-soldier's poison panic at Yogi's darshan

Biswajeet Banerjee
LUCKNOW

High drama unfolded at Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath's Janata Darshan in Lucknow on Thursday after a retired Army personnel arrived at the venue claiming to have consumed poison. The incident triggered panic at the venue before security personnel rushed him to the Civil Hospital, where his condition is reported to be critical.

The retired soldier has been identified as Satbir Gurjar, a resident of Siroli village under Loni police station limits in Ghaziabad. According to police, Satbir told security staff that he had consumed a toxic substance before coming to the Janata Darshan.

THE LETTER

In his written complaint, recovered by police, Satbir levelled serious allegations against BJP MLA from Ghaziabad, Nand Kishor Gurjar. The letter claims that in April, the MLA had organised a Kalash Yatra with the alleged objective of “toppling the government.” Satbir wrote that he had exposed the conspiracy on social media, following which, he said, the MLA began harassing him. “I was targeted and tortured after revealing the truth. I had no option left but to take this extreme step,” the letter reads. The complaint further mentions that Satbir had approached authorities several times but failed to get relief, forcing him to seek the Chief Minister's intervention.

MLA REACTS

Reacting to the charges, MLA Nand Kishor Gurjar dismissed Satbir's claims as baseless and politically motivated. “I do not even know this person, nor has he ever met me. If he proves his allegations, I will quit politics. Panchayat and assembly elections are near, and my rivals have hatched this conspiracy,” Gurjar told reporters. The legislator alleged that Satbir himself had a questionable past. “His brother's video had surfaced earlier, exposing how Satbir was suspended from the Army in a fake recruitment case. A murder case is also registered against him and his son for killing a man and dumping the body in a brick kiln. They even went to jail in that case,” he said. The MLA further claimed that Satbir was trying to forcibly occupy his brother's house, against whom a complaint was filed on the CM portal. “The electricity department even ordered disconnection of power supply in that case. He has multiple cases against him. My image is being tarnished, and to avoid jail, he is levelling these false allegations against me,” Gurjar added.

specter Gautampalli Ratnesh Kumar Singh said: “We have received a complaint letter from the retired soldier. An investigation is underway. His condition is stable and he is undergoing treatment at the hospital.”

The incident has sparked political chatter, with opposition parties likely to seize the opportunity to question the functioning of Janata Darbars and the seriousness of grievances brought before the Chief Minister.

PM to visit Bengal today

PTI
KOLKATA

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit West Bengal on Friday to unveil a string of infrastructure projects worth over Rs 5,200 crore and address a public rally in Dum Dum near here in a politically charged backdrop marked by TMC's protests over alleged harassment of Bengali-speaking migrants in several states.

The prime minister will arrive in Dum Dum on the northeastern fringe of Kolkata from Bihar and first participate in the inauguration of three new Kolkata Metro projects before addressing the party rally, a senior BJP leader said. The tour comes amid a row over constitutional amendment bills pertaining to the removal of prime minister, chief ministers and ministers after arrest on serious criminal charges.

Slapped in class, student returns with gun in lunch box, shoots teacher

PTI
RUDRAPUR

A Class 9 student in Uttarakhand's Kashipur city allegedly shot at his teacher inside the school after being disciplined by the latter in the class, police said on Thursday. The juvenile has been apprehended.

The incident took place on Wednesday, when the student shot at his teacher, Gagan Singh (35), with a gun he had hidden in his lunch box.

Police said that Singh survived the attack, as the bullet hit his shoulder. He was taken to a hospital, where doctors removed the bullet after surgery. He is out of danger now, they added.

Preliminary investigation revealed that a few days ago, the 14-year-old student was scolded and slapped by his teacher for indiscipline, which angered him, and he took this step.

After questioning the students and confirming the incident from the CCTV footage, a case of attempt to murder was registered against the teenager, and he was detained, said Abhay Pratap Singh, Kashipur SP. The accused is expected to be presented before the Juvenile Justice Board soon.

Police revealed that during interrogation, the student also shared information regarding the source from where he procured the weapon.

Following the incident, the 'Public School Association' kept all CBSE board-recognised private-public schools in Udhampur Singh Nagar district shut on Thursday.

Madras HC upholds IIT-M sexual harassment inquiry

CHENNAI

The Madras High Court has refused to interfere in disciplinary proceedings initiated by the Indian Institute of Technology-Madras (IIT-M) against one of its professors, who was found guilty of sexually harassing a woman student by the institute's Complaints Committee Against Sexual Harassment (CCASH).

Dismissing the writ petition, a bench of Justice N.

Anand Venkatesh observed that the report of the CCASH was only a fact-finding document and could not, by itself, be a ground to approach the court.
