Israel military claims Hamas handed over wrong body amid tense ceasefire

Aid limited to 400 trucks over slow, wrong return of hostages' bodies

TEL AVIV

THE Israeli military said on Wednesday that one of the bodies handed over by Hamas the previous day as part of the ceasefire deal is not that of a hostage who was held in Gaza, adding to tensions over the fragile truce in the two-year war.

Gaza's Health Ministry said it received 45 additional bodies of Palestinians from Israel, another step in implementation of the agreement. The bodies of 90 Palestinians have now been transferred. It was unclear whether the deceased had died in Israeli custody or were taken from Gaza by Israeli troops while searching for hostages. Four bodies of hostages had been handed over by Hamas on Tuesday, following four on Monday — hours after the last 20 living hostages were released from Gaza. In all, Israel has been awaiting the return of the bodies of 28 deceased hostages. Israel released around 2,000 Palestinian prisoners and detainees on Monday. Israel's military said that after the "examinations at the National Institute of Forensic Medicine, the fourth body handed over to Israel by Hamas does not match any of the hostages."

There was no immediate word on whose body it was. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu demanded that Hamas fulfill the requirements laid out in the ceasefire deal — introduced by US President Donald Trump — about the return of the hostages' bodies. "We will not compromise on this and will not stop our efforts until we return the last deceased hostage, until the last one," Netanyahu said.

The ceasefire plan had called for all hostages — living and dead — to be handed over by a deadline that expired on Monday. But under the deal, if that didn't happen, Hamas was to share information about deceased hostages and try to hand over all as soon as possible.

Kyiv team meets arms makers ahead of Zelenskyy-Trump talks

KYIV

A Ukrainian government delegation has met with prominent American weapons manufacturers during a US visit, a senior Kyiv official said Wednesday, before President Volodymyr Zelenskyy's meeting with US counterpart Donald Trump at the White House later this week.

A delegation led by the head of the Ukrainian president's office, Andrii Yermak, and Prime Minister Yulia Svyrydenko met with representatives of Lockheed Martin and Raytheon, Yermak wrote in a Telegram post. Yermak didn't disclose what was discussed during the talks, but said that his country's cooperation with the two companies "continues to grow" as Ukraine looks for further help resisting Russia's all-out war, which began on February 24, 2022.

Mykhailo Podolyak, a senior adviser to Yermak, posted on X that Ukraine is seeking cruise missiles, air defense systems and joint drone production agreements from the United States.

Raytheon produces Patriot air defense systems, which have been vital for Ukrainian efforts to counter Russian long-range strikes, and Tomahawk cruise missiles. Kyiv officials are keen to obtain Tomahawks, which could allow Ukraine to strike targets deep inside Russia, including Moscow, accurately and with large warheads. Lockheed Martin also manufactures a wide array of sophisticated weapon systems that can help Ukraine. While Zelenskyy is widely expected to request Trump's go-ahead at the Oval Office to procure Tomahawks, Washington has hesitated over such a move out of concern that it could escalate the war and deepen tensions between the United States and Russia. However, Trump on Sunday warned Russia that he may send Tomahawk missiles to Ukraine if Moscow doesn't end its war there soon — possibly using that threat to increase the pressure on Russian President Vladimir Putin to compromise. Germany pledges $2B military aid to Ukraine

BRUSSELS: Germany on Wednesday pledged more than $2 billion in military aid for Ukraine, as the government in Kyiv signaled that it would need $120 billion in 2026 to stave off Russia's nearly four-year all-out war. Defense Minister Boris Pistorius said that Germany would buy $500 million worth of US weapons for Ukraine under a new program to fast-track military equipment.

Syria's interim leader meets Putin in Moscow

MOSCOW: Syrian interim President Ahmad al-Sharaa held his first visit to Moscow, meeting Vladimir Putin to discuss bilateral ties and cooperation. Despite backing ousted Assad for years, Russia now engages with Syria's new leadership, aiming to secure its air and naval bases. Al-Sharaa emphasized historic relations and Syria's dependence on Russian energy, while Putin praised Syria's recent parliamentary elections.

This is not the first time Hamas has returned a wrong body to Israel. Earlier this year during a previous ceasefire, the group said it handed over the bodies of Shiri Bibas and her two sons. Israelis endured more agony when testing showed that one of the bodies returned was identified as a Palestinian woman. Bibas' body was returned a day later. The entrance of humanitarian aid to Gaza had been paused due to the exchange on Monday and a Jewish holiday on Tuesday. The Egyptian Red Crescent said 400 trucks carrying food, fuel, and medical supplies were bound for Gaza on Wednesday.

The Israeli defense body overseeing humanitarian aid in Gaza, COGAT, notified humanitarian organisations on Tuesday that it would allow into Gaza only half of the 600 daily aid trucks called for under the deal amid the concerns over the slow release of hostages' bodies.

It was not immediately clear whether Israel was following through on the threat. COGAT declined to comment on the number of trucks expected to enter Gaza on Wednesday. AP

SC revisits GOP challenges to Voting Rights Act provision

WASHINGTON

THE Supreme Court is taking up a major Republican-led challenge to the Voting Rights Act, the centerpiece legislation of the Civil Rights Movement, that could gut a key provision of the law that prohibits racial discrimination in redistricting.

The justices on Wednesday are hearing arguments for the second time in a case over Louisiana's congressional map, which has two majority Black districts. A ruling for the state could open the door for legislatures to redraw congressional maps across the South, potentially boosting Republican electoral prospects by eliminating majority Black and Latino seats that tend to favor Democrats.

A mid-decade battle over congressional redistricting already is playing out across the nation, after President Donald Trump began urging Texas and other Republican-controlled states to redraw their lines to make it easier for the GOP to hold its narrow majority in the US House of Representatives. The court's conservative majority has been skeptical of considerations of race, most recently ending affirmative action in college admissions. Twelve years ago, the court struck down a key part of the voting law requiring federal approval for changes in discriminating states. AP

Dozens killed in clash before Pak-Afghan agree for 48-hr truce

SPIN BOLDAK

DOZENS of troops and civilians were killed in a fresh round of border skirmishes between Pakistan and Afghanistan on Wednesday, officials on both sides of the frontier said, hours before Islamabad said the two sides had agreed to a 48-hour ceasefire.

The ceasefire was announced by Pakistan's foreign ministry after a week of violence between the two neighbours that flared after explosions in Kabul and elsewhere in Afghanistan that were blamed on Pakistan. The Taliban government in Kabul launched an offensive along parts of its southern border in retaliation, prompting Islamabad to vow a strong response of its own.

Islamabad has accused Afghanistan of harbouring militant groups led by the Pakistani Taliban (TTP) on its soil, a claim Kabul denies. With both countries on edge, plumes of black smoke were seen rising above Kabul after the two blasts in the Afghan capital on Wednesday evening, AFP reporters said.

Taliban government spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid said an oil tanker and a generator had exploded, sparking fires, although he did not explicitly link the blasts to the clashes with Pakistan.

However, a Pakistani security source told AFP that Islamabad had carried out "precision strikes" in the Afghan capital.

Ambulances raced through Kabul and shattered glass from damaged buildings littered the streets, AFP saw. Taliban forces also cordoned off some city streets. The ceasefire was announced by Islamabad barely an hour later. Taliban authorities in Kabul ordered the army to respect the ceasefire. Pakistan's military earlier accused the Afghan Taliban of attacking two major border posts in the southwest and northwest. It said both assaults were repelled, with about 20 Taliban fighters killed in attacks launched near Spin Boldak on the Afghan side of the frontier in southern Kandahar province early on Wednesday.
