European military mission takes shape in Greenland

2 Danish troop transport planes land late on Wednesday. UK, Finland, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway & Sweden to send forces too

Will send more forces to Greenland, says Macron

ISTRES: President Emmanuel Macron on Thursday said France would soon send more “land, air, and sea” forces to join the European military exercise in Greenland. “A first team of French service members is already on site and will be reinforced with land, air, and maritime assets,” he said. “France and the Europeans must continue to be present wherever their interests are threatened — without escalation, but uncompromising when it comes to respect for territorial sovereignty,” he added. Later in the day, French Foreign Minister Jean-Noel Barrot said the EU has “a strategic responsibility” in Greenland.

NUUK

A EUROPEAN military mission was taking shape in Greenland on Thursday, drawing a sharp rebuke from Russia, as Denmark said Washington still aimed to take control of the mineral-rich Arctic island.

Greenland’s Prime Minister Jens-Frederik Nielsen insisted meanwhile that “dialogue and diplomacy are the right way forward”, hailing in a Facebook post the fact that a dialogue was now “underway”.

The developments came a day after a White House meeting failed to resolve “fundamental disagreement” over Greenland, an autonomous Danish territory that President Donald Trump insists the United States needs to ensure its security.

planes landed in Greenland on Wednesday.

Britain, Finland, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden have also announced the deployment of military personnel as part of a reconnaissance mission to Greenland’s capital Nuuk, under Denmark’s “Arctic Endurance” exercise organised with NATO allies.

The modest military reinforcements — 13 soldiers from Germany, for example — are meant to prepare armed forces for future exercises in the Arctic, according to European defence sources.

“A first team of French service members is already on site and will be reinforced in the coming days with land, air, and maritime assets,” French President Emmanuel Macron said Thursday.

Germany’s defence ministry said the aim was to “explore the framework conditions for possible military contributions to support Denmark in ensuring security in the region”.

The foreign ministers of Denmark and Greenland met with US Vice President JD Vance and Secretary of State Marco Rubio in Washington on Wednesday. Danish Prime Minister Mette Frederiksen said in a statement Thursday that “a working group” was being set up to discuss how Arctic security could be improved.

“However, this does not change the fact that there is a fundamental disagreement, because the American ambition to take over Greenland remains intact,” Frederiksen said, hailing the arrival of European military personnel in Greenland.

“There is consensus within the NATO alliance that a strengthened presence in the Arctic is crucial for European and North American security,” she said. Trump has argued that if the United States does not take Greenland, “China or Russia will”, deriding Danish efforts to increase security for Greenland as amounting to “two dogsleds”. AFP

Issues yet to be resolved as Gaza ceasefire enters phase 2

JERUSALEM

A US-backed plan to end the war in Gaza has entered its second phase despite unresolved disputes between Israel and Hamas over alleged ceasefire violations and issues unaddressed in the first stage.

The most contentious questions remain Hamas’s refusal to publicly commit to full disarmament, a non-negotiable demand from Israel, and Israel’s lack of clarity over whether it will fully withdraw its forces from Gaza. The creation of a Palestinian technocratic committee, announced on Wednesday, is intended to manage day-to-day governance in post-war Gaza, but it leaves unresolved political and security issues.

The first phase, part of a 20-point proposal unveiled by US President Donald Trump, began on October 10 and aimed primarily to stop the fighting in the Gaza Strip, allow in aid and secure the return of all remaining living and deceased hostages held by Hamas and allied Palestinian militant groups. All hostages have since been returned, except for the remains of one Israeli, Ran Gvili. AFP

Gulf allies convince Don ‘to give Iran a chance’

PARIS

GULF allies have convinced Donald Trump to “give Iran a chance”, a Saudi official said on Thursday, after the US President threatened strikes on the nation over a crackdown on protests that activists say has left thousands dead.

Iran was shaken over the last week by some of the biggest anti-government protests in the history of the Islamic republic. The Norway-based Iran Human Rights (IHR) NGO said on Wednesday that Iranian security forces had killed at least 3,428 protesters. Iranian authorities have lashed out at “rioters” who they claimed were backed by Israel and the US, vowing fast-track justice that activists fear will translate into a spree of executions.

Trump has not ruled out new military action against the Islamic republic under supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, after Washington backed Israel in its June 12-day war against Iran. But with the belligerent rhetoric on all sides appearing to tone down for now, a senior Saudi official said Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Oman led efforts to talk Trump out of an attack on Iran, fearing “grave blowbacks in the region”.

The Gulf trio “led a long, frantic, diplomatic last-minute effort to convince President Trump to give Iran a chance to show good intention”.

In telephone talks on Thursday, Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi told Saudi Arabian counterpart Faisal bin Farhan of the importance of “global condemnation of foreign interference in the internal affairs of regional countries” and vowed Iran would defend itself “against any foreign threat”. INDIAN-ORIGIN LOP REMOVED

Prime Minister Lawrence Wong has removed Indian-origin Workers’ Party chief Pritam Singh as Leader of the Opposition (LoP), and asked the opposition party to nominate another Member of Parliament (MP) to fill the position. In a statement on Thursday, Wong said: ‘Having considered the matter carefully, I have decided that Singh’s criminal convictions, taken together with Parliament’s considered view of his unsuitability, make it no longer tenable for him to continue as the LoP.’ His decision will take into place with immediate effect, it was reported
