MUKH MANTRI SEHAT YOJANA

Punjab govt rolls out Rs 10 lakh medical cover for all 65 lakh families

To cover nearly 3 crore residents of Punjab; no income limit for availing benefits

Express News Service
Chandigarh, January 22

THE AAM Aadmi Party government in Punjab Thursday formally rolled out the Mukh Mantri Sehat Yojana (MMSY) to provide free cashless medical treatment of up to Rs 10 lakh to every family in the state, even as Chief Minister

Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann and AAP national convener Arvind Kejriwal launch the Mukh Mantri Sehat Yojana, in Mohali on Thursday. ANI

Bhagwant Mann and party national convener Arvind Kejriwal sounded the bugle for the 2027 Assembly polls by asking voters not to make the mistake of electing "power hungry politicians."

The universal healthcare cover will be provided to all 65 lakh families in the state granting them access to free treatment for over 2,500 medical procedures at both state-run and some private hospitals. Any resident of Punjab, carrying an Aadhaar card or a voter card, will be eligible to avail the benefits of the scheme.

Addressing a gathering in Mohali after launching the scheme, Kejriwal said, "No one (in Punjab) is excluded. All 65 lakh families are covered. We had given this guarantee before the elections. This was called Kejriwal's guarantee."

He said, in the past 75 years, several governments came, but they did not take care of people despite making tall claims. "Beware of these traditional parties. Do not commit the mistake of giving them your vote again. It was the nature that helped formation of AAP. Otherwise, neither I nor Manish Sisodia and Satyendar Jain had the money. Waheguru helped this party."

Stating that last four years (of AAP rule) would be written in golden words in the history of Punjab, he said the traditional political parties would not believe that "we will provide free healthcare and free power" to the people. "We gave free power to all, good schools are coming up, women enjoy free travel and now we are providing free healthcare," he said.

He said during the previous Congress dispensation, both Captain Amarinder Singh and his successor Charanjit Singh Channi used to say that the treasury was empty and that the government was running in deficit. "They said that Kejriwal was roaming around peddling lies about free electricity, free healthcare, and free education, and that none of this was possible because there was no money. But the AAP government proved that all the guarantees could indeed be fulfilled," he added.

Targeting the previous governments, Kejriwal said that in 75 years, merely 400 primary health centres came up in Punjab. "We have set up 1,000 'mohalla' clinics in the past four years and 500 more will come up in the state. In next 4-5 months, we will set up 2,500 pind clinics in the villages. Our mohalla clinics are grand. Those are air-conditioned. Over 1000 doctors and specialists have been hired in the state. Now there is no shortage of doctors in government hospitals," he further said.

Heaping praise on Mann, the AAP convenor said, "Your Chief Minister works 24 hours a day. Their (other parties) chief ministers are in Davos in Switzerland. Your CM is sitting here, inaugurating the healthcare scheme. He may be feeling like traveling. His wife would also be saying that they should travel to Switzerland. He has a daughter who would be wanting to travel. But he is here," Kejriwal said.

Mann said it was a historic day for Punjab in the healthcare sector. The 'Mukh Mantri Sehat Yojana' is the biggest health scheme since independence, he said, adding the scheme has been launched for the welfare of every section of society, inspired by the teachings of Guru Sahiban. "Health cards will be issued to all 65 lakh families, covering nearly three crore citizens of Punjab," he said, adding that for the first time no income limit has been fixed for any health scheme in the state.

"With the launch of this scheme today, Punjab has set a new benchmark for the entire country," Mann said, underlining that Punjab has now become the first state to provide free healthcare, free education, free electricity, and free bus travel for women.

Explaining the scope of the initiative, Mann said that from government employees and pensioners to and every other resident would be eligible for the health card. "These cards can be obtained from facilitation centres and Common Service Centres, or through online registration using Aadhaar card or voter card," he said, adding that youth club members would also assist citizens by making cards door to door. He further stated that 850 government and private hospitals have already been empanelled under the scheme and more will be added in the coming days.
