

400M BARRELS OF RESERVE OIL RELEASED TO COOL COST

PARIS

THE International Energy Agency said on Wednesday its member countries would unlock 400 million barrels of oil from their reserves to ease the impact of the West Asia war, the biggest such release ever.

"The oil market challenges we are facing are unprecedented in scale, therefore I am very glad that IEA member countries have responded with an emergency collective action of unprecedented size," IEA Executive Director Fatih Birol said.

The IEA-coordinated release exceeded the 182 million barrels of oil that member countries of the Paris-based global energy body released in 2022 when Russian leader Vladimir Putin invaded Ukraine.

"The emergency stocks will be made available to the market over a timeframe that is appropriate to the national circumstances of each member country and will be supplemented by additional emergency measures by some countries," the IEA said. The announcement came as leaders of the Group of Seven advanced economies discussed the widespread economic fallout from the US-Israeli war with Iran, now into its second week, at a video conference meeting chaired by French President Emmanuel Macron. Earlier on Wednesday, Japan, whose strategic oil reserves are among the world's largest, and Germany said they would tap into their oil reserves.

Prime Minister Sanae Takachi said Japan would release reserves as early as Monday, while Germany's Economy and Energy Minister Katherine Reiche said her country planned to do the same, without specifying a date. "Without waiting for a formal decision on coordinated international stock releases with the IEA, Japan has decided to take the lead in easing supply and demand in the international energy market by releasing strategic reserves as early as the 16th of March," Takachi told reporters.

"Given Japan's exceptionally high dependence on the West Asia (for oil) and as we will be severely impacted, we plan to utilise Japan's strategic petroleum reserves," she said. Reiche said a total of 2.4 million tons would be released.

The crude market has been hit by wild volatility since the United States and Israel began striking Iran at the end of last month, with Tehran retaliating by attacking targets across the oil-rich Gulf and effectively shutting down the Strait of Hormuz.

Sri Lankan court orders handover of Iranian sailors' bodies

COLOMBO: A Sri Lankan court on Wednesday ordered authorities to hand over the bodies of 84 Iranian sailors killed in a US attack on an Iranian vessel off the country's southern coast to Iran's embassy. Galle Chief Magistrate Sameera Dodangoda directed the Galle National Hospital to release the bodies following a police request. The sailors died when the Iranian frigate IRIS Denas sank off Galle after the attack last week while returning from a naval exercise in India. The bodies, recovered by Sri Lankan authorities, are currently stored in refrigerated containers at the hospital.

Kyiv deploys drone defense teams to Qatar, UAE and Saudi Arabia

KYIV: Ukrainian anti-drone experts have begun working in three Gulf states targeted by Iranian attacks, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said. Kyiv has sought to leverage its expertise in downing Russian drones to help the Gulf nations, which are being attacked with the same Iranian-designed Shahed drones that Russia fires on Ukraine. "Three of our teams have gone — strong teams of experts, military personnel, engineers, different people. Today the military are already communicating and working," Zelenskyy told reporters. His spokesman confirmed separately that the three countries were Qatar, the UAE and Saudi Arabia.
