

KTR alleges 'conspiracy' behind Musi project, warns against demolition of poor people's houses

Hyderabad: Bharat Rashtira Samithi (BRS) Working President K T Rama Rao on Thursday inspected areas along the Musi River that were developed during the previous BRS government and interacted with families who claim they may lose their homes under the Congress government's proposed Musi development plan.

Speaking to the media after the visit, KTR said the Musi river could be beautified without demolishing houses or displacing poor families.

He stated that during the BRS regime the riverfront was developed in areas such as Nagole without damaging a single house.

Alleging that the present government was planning large-scale demolitions, KTR claimed that nearly 1.5 lakh houses were under threat in the name of the Musi project. He accused the Congress government of marking houses with red signs and creating fear among residents living along the river.

KTR further alleged that the project cost was being inflated from Rs 16,000 crore to around Rs 1.5 lakh crore and warned of a possible large-scale corruption attempt in the name of river development. "Musi is not beautification... it is turning into lutefication," he remarked.

The BRS leader said his party supports the development of the Musi but strongly opposes the demolition of houses belonging to the poor. He warned that the party would resist any attempt to use bulldozers on people's homes and said the issue would be raised in the Assembly.

KTR also alleged that the government was preparing to proceed with demolitions without a Detailed Project Report (DPR) and criticised the Congress for failing to reassure affected families. "If corruption is carried out by demolishing the houses of the poor, we will definitely stop it," he said.

Nitish files nomination for Rajya Sabha, ending speculation

Patna: Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar on Thursday filed his nomination papers for the biennial elections to the Rajya Sabha, putting an end to speculation about whether he would step down from the chief minister's post to enter Parliament as a member of the Upper House. The development had sparked political discussion in recent days, with several observers speculating that Kumar might shift to national politics. However, his decision to file the nomination while continuing as chief minister clarified that he would remain actively involved in the state's governance. Along with Kumar, several leaders from the ruling National Democratic Alliance (NDA) also submitted their nominations for the Rajya Sabha elections from Bihar. The candidates included JD(U) leader and sitting Rajya Sabha member Ram Nath Thakur, Bihar BJP president Nitin Nabin, BJP leader Shivesh Kumar and Upendra Kushwaha. The NDA leaders arrived together at the Bihar Legislative Assembly complex in Patna to complete the nomination process. The event was marked by the presence of several senior leaders from the alliance, reflecting the importance of the coalition attaches to the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections. Union Home Minister Amit Shah also accompanied the candidates during the filing of nominations. His presence underscored the BJP's strong support for the NDA candidates in Bihar and highlighted the coordination within the alliance. After reaching the assembly premises, Kumar and the other candidates completed the required procedural formalities before submitting their nomination papers to the returning officer. Following the completion of documentation and verification steps, Kumar and the four other NDA nominees officially filed their papers to contest the Rajya Sabha elections from the state. The biennial Rajya Sabha elections are being held as the terms of several sitting members from Bihar are set to expire next month.

Karnataka heading for bankruptcy due to Congress guarantees: Vijayendra

Hubballi: Karnataka BJP president B. Y. Vijayendra on Thursday alleged that the Congress government in the state was facing a severe financial crisis and struggling to mobilise adequate resources to fulfil its poll promises, particularly the five guarantee schemes announced ahead of the assembly elections. He claimed that the financial burden of these schemes had pushed the state government into a difficult fiscal position. Targeting the government led by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, Vi-jayendra said the repeated increase in the prices of fuel, essential commodities and electricity reflected the financial strain faced by the administration. According to him, the government's inability to generate additional revenue had forced it to resort to price hikes affecting the common public. Speaking to reporters in Hubballi-Dharwad, Vijayendra said the Congress government was finding it increasingly difficult to meet the commitments it had made to the people during the election campaign. He argued that the ruling party had made ambitious promises without clearly outlining sustainable financial plans to support them.

"The Congress government headed by CM Siddaramaiah is unable to raise the resources to fulfil its promises, that is, the five guarantees. Because of this, over the last three years, the chief minister has repeatedly gone back to price hikes," Vijayendra said while addressing the media.

Partial curbs continue in parts of Kashmir for fourth day over Khamenei killing protests

Srinagar: Partial restrictions on the movement of people and public assembly continued in several parts of Kashmir for the fourth consecutive day on Thursday as authorities sought to prevent further protests over the reported killing of Iran's Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei.

The curbs were imposed on Monday, a day after large protests erupted in various areas of the Kashmir Valley following reports that Khamenei had been killed in joint strikes carried out by the United States and Israel. The demonstrations drew hundreds of people in several locations, prompting the administration to impose restrictions to maintain law and order.

Officials said that while the restrictions were not a complete lockdown, movement in sensitive areas was being regulated to prevent large gatherings and possible clashes between protesters and security forces.

Despite these measures, sporadic protests have been reported from different localities over the past three days.

In some places, small groups of demonstrators assembled to express their anger over the developments, raising slogans and calling for protests.

Minor clashes between protesters and security personnel were also reported during this period. According to officials, several individuals sustained injuries during these confrontations, including a few members of the security forces deployed in the region. Authorities said that partial restrictions remained in place in certain sensitive areas on Thursday as a precautionary measure. Security officials are closely monitoring the situation to ensure that protests do not escalate into widespread unrest.

Mobile internet services also continue to remain temporarily suspended in parts of the Valley. Officials said the step was taken to prevent the spread of rumours and inflammatory content on social media that could potentially trigger further protests.

A heavy deployment of police and paramilitary forces has been maintained in many parts of Kashmir. Personnel from the Central Reserve Police Force have been stationed in several key locations to assist the local police in maintaining order.

In Srinagar, the city's commercial hub at Lal Chowk remained heavily barricaded and largely inaccessible to the public.

Minor apprehended within 36 hours in birthday party firing case in Lucknow

Lucknow: In a swift breakthrough, the Uttar Pradesh Police have solved a firing incident that occurred during a birthday party within 36 hours of the crime by taking a minor into protective custody.

The minor in conflict with the law has been sent to a juvenile reform home today. According to official information, on March 3, a written complaint was filed by Jamir Khan, a resident of Behsa village under Amausi Airport area in Sarojini Nagar, Lucknow. Based on the complaint, a case (Crime No. 100/2026) was registered at Krishnanagar Police Station under relevant sections 103(1), 351(2), and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita. Considering the seriousness of the incident, two police teams were immediately constituted under the direction of the Deputy Commissioner of Police (South) and the supervision of senior officers including the Additional Deputy Commissioner of Police and the Assistant Commissioner of Police, Krishnanagar.

The teams conducted a thorough inspection of the crime scene with the assistance of forensic experts. Electronic evidence and other physical clues were carefully collected and preserved.

Based on electronic evidence, detailed investigation, and technical analysis, the police identified and apprehended a minor involved in the incident today. After completing the necessary legal formalities, the minor was produced before the competent authority and subsequently sent to a juvenile reform home for further proceedings. Further investigation in the matter is ongoing. It was mentioned that a 13-year-old boy died after being shot during a birthday gathering in Lucknow on Monday. The accused is reportedly a minor and said to be related to Uttar Pradesh Deputy Chief Minister Brijesh Pathak. The accused minor went to pick up his friend, identified as Anaiz, from his home around 3:30 pm to celebrate his birthday.
