TMC panchayat leader, husband and daughter hacked to death

Police: 3 arrested; key accused was in relationship with victim’s daughter

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, APRIL 7

A PANCHAYAT-LEVEL leader from Trinamool Congress (TMC), her husband and elder daughter were allegedly hacked to death on Friday in Sitalkuchi area of Cooch Behar district in West Bengal. The main accused was arrested along with two of his accomplices while he was fleeing the leader’s house after they attacked the family, police said. Police said the deceased were identified as Neelima Barman (52), Bimal Kumar Barman (68), and Runa Barman (24). The couple’s younger daughter Iti (22) was also critically injured in the attack and is currently undergoing treatment at a hospital, they added.

Preliminary investigations indicate that the murders were a fallout of an alleged love affair that went wrong, said a senior police officer.

A source said, prima facie, the murder does not seem to have a political link. The family was attacked by a man who was in an alleged relationship with the TMC leader’s youngest daughter. After a failed relationship, the man killed the woman’s family for revenge, the source added. According to police, around 4.50 am, the accused Vibhuti Bhushan Roy allegedly entered Barmans’ house along with his two accomplices and attacked the family with sharp objects.

Hearing the family members’ screams, locals rushed to help and apprehended Roy. Later, Roy and his two accomplices were arrested by the Sitalkuchi police.

Police said the Neelima, Bimal and their daughters were rushed to the primary health-care centre and then referred to the Sub-divisional Hospital where the couple were declared brought dead. Runa was later shifted to MJN Hospital in Cooch Behar but was declared brought dead. Police officials said they were waiting for the post-mortem report to ascertain more details about the case.

Trinamool leader shot dead in Nadia’s Hanskhali

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICES KOLKATA, APRIL 7

A LOCAL TMC leader was shot dead by unidentified assailants in a crowded market in Hanskhali area of Nadia district’s Ranghat sub-division on Friday, police said. The deceased was identified as Amod Ali Biswas, the TMC vice-president of Ramnagar Bara Chuparia panchayat area. The incident took place outside a tea shop at Ramnagar village where the assailants with their faces covered started firing at Biswas, leading to tension in the area.

They chased Biswas briefly before killing him on the spot, officials said. Police said they are investigating into the incident. Biswas had gone to the local market in the morning and was sitting at the tea shop.

His body has been sent to a hospital in Krishnanagar for post-mortem, officials said.

TMC Rajya Sabha MP Shantanu Sen said, “Those behind the incident will not be spared. The police will nab the culprits. As the panchayat elections are nearing in the state, the Opposition is getting nervous and wants to create an atmosphere of unrest. The BJP leaders are roaming around the state inciting people to stir up trouble. An attempt is being made to disturb peace in Bengal by bringing hired killers from outside.”

TMC district president Debasish Ganguly, however, said the incident was likely to a fall-out of personal enmity. “I don’t believe that he was killed due to political rivalry. He was likely killed over personal enmity. The police are investigating the matter and the truth will come out soon,” he added.

BJP leader Rahul Sinha said, “The Trinamool stands divided. As the panchayat polls are nearing, they are fighting with each other over control in their areas. It has reached an alarming level. There is no such thing as police administration in the state. The condition of the common man in Bengal is miserable.”

SCHOOL JOBS SCAM

Big names will come out once Google reveals who ran fake websites: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, APRIL 7

BJP STATE president Sukanta Majumdar Friday said that he hoped that Google will cooperate with the CBI in unearthing “big names” in the school recruitment scam after reports that the central agency has written to the search engine seeking information on two fake websites used in the job racket.

Addressing a press conference in Kolkata, Majumdar said, “The CBI has written to Google seeking details of the websites. This means that some big names are involved in the scam. I am sure the search engine company will cooperate with the CBI. We feel that big names will come out in the open.”

Sources said, the CBI officials, came across two websites (now defunct) that appeared like the West Bengal School Service Commission (WBSSC). The CBI has sought information on the email accounts that were used to open these websites and the IP addresses of the devices used to open them.

Teen rape victim denied HC nod to terminate fetuses over life risk

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, APRIL 7

THE CALCUTTA High Court Wednesday denied to grant permission for a medical termination of pregnancy to a 12-year-old girl, who claimed to be a rape and sexual assault victim, on the grounds that the procedure involved a risk to the “extent of maternal death”.

The single judge bench of Justice Aniruddha Roy observed, “In the light of the said report furnished by the Medical Board dated April 4, 2023 as quoted above, one crucial factor is there, of which this Court cannot be unindifferent, that the termination of pregnancy at this stage of gestation may carry a risk even to the extent of maternal death. Here this court got stuck as the life of the minor girl is paramount at this stage. If ultimately, the minor girl has to sacrifice her life in the event of termination of her unwilling pregnancy at this advanced stage, then the question automatically comes to the mind of this court that whose personal life, liberty and dignity shall be protected as guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution.”

The order read, “For those reasons and discussions, this court cannot proceed to grant any relief for medical termination of the pregnancy of the said minor girl.” The writ petition was filed by the girl’s mother seeking a termination of the pregnancy of her minor daughter.

On March 9, an FIR was registered in an alleged case of rape and sexual assault under the POCSO Act, 2012 at a police station in north Bengal.

The victim was admitted to a hospital and after the medical examination it was found that the girl was carrying twin live fetuses as on March 20. According to the report of the Medical Board, the age of the gestation carries the risk of massive complications and the same can go up to maternal death, the court noted.

The court observed, “This court needs to ponder at this stage as to whether the continuance of such unwilling pregnancy would involve a risk of causing grave injury to the mental health of the minor girl and whether the constitutional safeguard for protection of life can be extended to her, if so, to what extent.”

“No fetus can grow up naturally if the life of the mother is not supported and smooth sailing. The statute also provided for mother’s health, strength and also life, just by giving birth out of an unwilling pregnancy, the rest of the life of the mother cannot be in a compromised existence.” Thus, the court held that it cannot proceed to grant any relief for medical termination of the pregnancy of the said minor girl.

The court directed that the concerned hospital take all possible medical care required for the minor girl and the fetuses.
