Cong humiliated Ambedkar, now targeting me: PM

Over 75,000 people from eight segments of Bidar constituency take part in programme

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday slammed Congress at BJP rallies in Vijayapura and Belagavi district, and dedicated ample time to humiliate the party for its alleged misconduct and failures.

At Koligudda in Raibag taluk, he said Congress humiliated a leader like Dr B R Ambedkar in the past. "During his visit to Belagavi (in 1939), Ambedkar admitted that Congress called him an anti-national, a puppet and a snake. Now, Congress is targeting me, hurling abuses like 'Modi Teri Khabra Khudegi'," he said. But people of Karnataka will support BJP and not forgive Congress for its misconduct, he added. "When BJP and Modi began working sincerely for the country's development, it is targeting Modi," he said.

“Ee bariya sarkara bahumat-ada sarkara (The government this time is the majority government),” he said in Kannada. Congress used farmers by playing the “loan-waiver card” that benefited only rich farmers. But the BJP opened accounts for all farmers and launched the Kisan Samman Scheme to extend direct benefit to farmers, he said. Claiming that BJP granted ₹29 lakh crore for the welfare of the people, he said, “Just imagine what would have happened to such a large sum if Congress was ruling.” Over 75,000 people from eight segments of Bidar constituency took part in the programme.

EVEN as the demand to ban the controversial film The Kerala Story gets louder, the authorities maintain that there is little scope for the state government to intervene in the issue. Once the Central Censor Board certifies a film, states cannot interfere in its screening, Cultural Affairs Minister Saji Cherian told TNIE.

"The film is produced with the aim of destroying the state's secular fabric. People should boycott it," he said. Echoing the demand to ban the film, CPM state secretary M V Govindan had said that a ban would not solve the issue. However, the government should

MP John Brittas served notice for criticising Amit Shah

T'Puram: The Rajya Sabha secretariat has served a show-cause notice on CPM MP John Brittas for writing an opinion piece criticising Union Home Minister Amit Shah. There are reports that the MP has been directed to submit a written explanation. The notice was served after BJP state general secretary P Sudheer approached Vice-President Jagdeep Dhankhar, accusing Brittas of seditious conduct in this regard. Following this, the Rajya Sabha secretariat summoned the CPM leader who reportedly explained his stand to the RS chairman. In a newspaper article published in February, John Brittas criticised the Union home minister over a remark the latter had made on Kerala.

consider the option of banning it. The film is being used by the RSS and BJP for their communal propaganda, he said.

However, social and cultural

However, social and cultural

activists are of the opinion that banning a film or putting curbs on any kind of freedom of expression will only backfire. "Ban is not an option," a film critic told TNIE.

“Let the film be released here. The response should be by producing a counter-narrative to the film forthwith, rather than banning it. The ban will give right-wing forces a chance to demand a similar ban on any film, drama or books that they don’t like,” he said. “The position that Kerala is a non-disturbed heaven itself is hypocrisy. Ensuring dialogues and producing a counter-narrative could help withstand the onslaught of majoritarian ideology,” he added.

GPS radio collar tied around Arikomban's neck before being transported to Kumily

AFTER locating Arikomban at Sinkukandam around 6.30am, the team surrounded the elephant at 11am. However, separating Arikomban from his companion Chakkakomban was a major challenge. They succeeded in taking him out of the protective circle created by Chakkakomban by bursting crackers.

Upon getting Arikomban to a convenient place near Cementpalam, the first tranquillizer shot was fired at the tusker around 11.54am. By 2.30pm, three booster shots were fired. The jumbo had tricked the forest officials in 2017 as he ran into the forest after they fired five tranquillizer shots at him. Despite being sedated, he remained aggressive till 3pm this time and tried to attack the officials who surrounded him with ropes. However, at 3pm the team approached the tusker with the help of four kumki elephants – Surendran, Kunju, Surya, and Vikram. The officials tied his legs with ropes. However, the inclement weather made the operation even more difficult. Later, with the support of earthmovers, a temporary path was carved out to move a truck to the spot. Even as the tusk remained aggressive for nearly half an-hour, mahouts made the kumli elephants push him into the truck by 5pm. A GPS radio collar was tied around his neck before he was transported to Kumily by 6pm.

Protests against staging of play Kakkukali

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Kozhikode

THE play Kakkukali is once again at the centre of controversy as a protest was held in Edachery near Nadapuram against its staging. The Syro-Malabar Diocese of Thamarassery led the protest, alleging that the play portrays Christian nun convents as torture centres.

Around 100 devotees, including women, participated in the protest march held on Saturday in front of the Bimal Cultural Village where the drama was being staged. However, despite the protest, the crew staged the play at 8 pm in Edachery. "There was a protest in front of the venue. But we staged the play," said M Shiju, convener of Bimal Cultural Gramam.
