Iran will attack Israel 'sooner than later': Biden

WASHINGTON, 13 APRIL

US President Joe Biden has told reporters at the White House that he expects Iran will attack Israel "sooner than later," media reports said.

"I don't want to get into secure information but my expectation is sooner than later," Biden said to reporters on Friday when asked how imminent an Iranian attack on Israel would be, CNN reported. Asked what his message to Iran is right now, the President said, "Don't." AGENCIES man stabbed six people to death at a busy Sydney shopping center Saturday before he was fatally shot, police said. Eight people, including a 9-month-old, were injured in the attack.

The 40-year-old suspect began stabbing people at the Westfield Shopping Centre in Bondi Junction, which is in the city's eastern suburbs, before a police inspector shot him after he turned and raised a knife, New South Wales Assistant Police Commissioner Anthony Cooke told reporters.

Six of the victims ~ five women and a man ~ and the suspect died. Commissioner Karen Webb said the eight injured people were being treated at hospitals. The baby was in surgery, but it was too early to know the condition, she said.

"We are confident that there is no ongoing risk, and we are dealing with one person who is now deceased," Webb said in a later briefing. She added: "It's not a terrorism incident." She said police wouldn't identify the man yet and were still working to determine his motivation.

Cooke said a "lengthy and precise" investigation was just beginning.

Cooke said the police inspector, a senior officer, was alone when she confronted the suspect and engaged him soon after her arrival on the scene, "saving a range of people's lives."

The officer "showed enormous courage and bravery," Webb said.

Video showed many ambulances and police cars around the shopping center, and people streaming out.

Paramedics were treating patients at the scene.

Roi Huberman, a sound engineer at ABC TV in Australia, told the network that he sheltered in a store during the incident. "And suddenly we heard a shot or maybe two shots and we didn't know what to do," he said.

"Then the very capable person in the store took us to the back where it can be locked. She then locked the store and then she then let us through the back and now we are out."

AGENCIES JERUSALEM, 13 APRIL

Dozens of Israeli settlers stormed into a Palestinian village in the Israeli-occupied West Bank on Friday, shooting and setting houses and cars on fire. The rampage killed a Palestinian man and wounded 25 others, Palestinian health officials said.

The violence was the latest in an escalation in the West Bank that has accompanied Israel's war in the Gaza Strip. An Israeli rights group said the settlers were searching for a missing 14-year-old boy from their settlement. After the rampage, Israeli troops said they were still searching for the teen.

The killing came after an Israeli raid overnight killed two Palestinians, including a Hamas militant, in confrontation with Israeli forces.

Palestinian health officials say over 460 Palestinians have been killed in the West Bank by Israeli fire since the war erupted in October.

The Israeli human rights Society said eight of the injured

The slain man was later identified by his family as 26-yearold Jehad Abu Alia. His father, Afif Abu Alia, said he was shot and killed but was unsure whether the fatal bullet was fired by an armed settler or an Israeli soldier.

"My son went with others to defend our land and honor, and this is what happened," Abu Alia said from a hospital in the West Bank city of Ramallah, where his son's body had been transported.

The attack was condemned by Mohammad Mustafa, the new Palestinian prime minister.

The Israeli army said it was searching for the missing Israeli teen, and that forces had opened fire when stones were hurled at soldiers by Palestinians. It said "hits were identified," and soldiers also cleared out Israeli settlers from the village. "As of this moment, the violent riots have been dispersed and there are no Israeli civilians present within the town," it said.
