Detailed Terms and Conditions for Online E - Auction Sale

1. Auction/bidding shall be only through "Online electronic mode" on the website of the Service Provider, as mentioned in E-Auction Sale Notice.
2. For participating in e-auction sale, the intending bidders shall register their details with the Service Provider through their website and get the User ID and Password. The Service Provider will communicate the Password to all the qualified bidders on deposit of EMD to their e-mail for participating in online e-auction.
3. The Bid Forms received without copies of proof of payment of EMD, PAN CARD, ID and Address Proof will be summarily rejected and their user IDs will not be activated to participate in e-Auction.
4. The sale will be stopped before the sale is knocked down, if the aforesaid arrears (including costs of sale along with future interest) are tendered or proof is submitted to the undersigned to the effect that the said amount along with interest and costs have been paid. Further, if the amount to be realized by sale is satisfied by the sale of an item/portion of the properties, the sale shall be immediately stopped with respect to the remainder.
5. At the sale, no officer or other person, having any duty to perform in connection with this sale shall, however, either directly or indirectly bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in the property sold.
6. The bidders/participants are hereby informed that the e-auction sale shall be subject to the provisions of Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (RDDBFI Act) and Second Schedule to Income Tax Act, 1971 and the rules made there under and also as per terms and conditions stipulated in the Sale Proclamation/E Auction Sale Notice placed on the website.
7. The particulars of properties specified in the 'schedules' have been stated to the best of the information to the Recovery Officer but the Recovery Officer shall not be answerable for any error, misstatement or omission in the sale proclamation. The property/properties is/are being sold on "as is where is", "as is what is" and "no complaint basis" and shall not be sold below the Reserve Price.
8. Prospective bidders are advised to peruse the copies of Title deeds with the Bank and verify the latest Encumbrance Certificate and other Revenue/Municipal records to exercise due diligence and satisfy themselves on the Title and Encumbrance, if any over the property. All bidders shall be deemed to have read and understood the terms and conditions of sale and be bound by them.
9. The bidders may participate in e-auction for bidding from their place of choice. Internet connectivity shall have to be ensured by bidder himself. DRT/Bank/Service Provider shall not be held responsible for the internet connectivity, network problems, system crash down, power failure, etc.
10. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser provided always that he/she is legally qualified to bid and provided further that the amount bid by him is not less than the reserve price. It shall be in the discretion of the undersigned to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate so as to make it inadvisable to do so.

11. For reasons to be recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the undersigned to adjourn auction sale subject to the provisions of the Second Schedule to the Income Tax Act, 1961.

12. (i) The Successful Bidder shall, by RTGS/NEFT/Funds Transfer to the credit of Account mentioned at in the Sale Proclamation-cum-E Auction Sale Notice, deposit,

(a) 25% of the bid amount (including EMD) along with poundage fee of 1% of bid amount + Rs.10/- on the same day of the sale, being knocked down in his favour so that the Bank/DRT would confirm the same to the Service Provider for declaring him as Successful Highest bidder in the auction ; and

(b) the balance 75% of bid amount on or before 15 days from the date of the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the 15th day be a Sunday or other holiday then on the first office day after the 15th day.

(ii) In default of above payments within the specified periods by the successful bidder/auction purchaser, the sale will be cancelled and the property shall be resold, after the issue of a fresh proclamation of sale in terms of rule 57 of the Second Schedule of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The deposit, may if the undersigned thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

13. EMD of unsuccessful bidders will be returned on the day of the e auction sale held, by the CH Bank by crediting the same to the respective accounts of bidders as mentioned in their Bid forms.

14. The successful bidder shall bear the charges payable for conveyance, Registration fee, stamp duty, etc. as applicable. All the statutory charges if any shall be borne by the Auction Purchaser.

15. Bids once made shall not be cancelled or withdrawn. All bids made using the user ID given to bidder will be deemed to have been made by him only.

16. The intending bidder is advised to have a valid digital signature. Digital Signature is not mandatory for purchase of properties value below Rupees One Crore. For obtaining digital signature contact the Service Provider mentioned in the Proclamation of Sale.

17. The Recovery Officer may postpone/cancel the e-Auction without assigning any reason thereof. In case the e-Auction scheduled is postponed/adjourned to a date before 30 days from the scheduled date of sale, it will only be displayed on the notice board of DRT, Visakhapatnam and also notified on the website of the Service Provider.

18. The Recovery Officer has a right to conduct the auction of the properties jointly or severally.

19. Branch Head of Certificate Holder Bank will hand over the property and related title deed documents to the successful bidder in whose favour the Sale is confirmed by the undersigned.
